That's life! Unrequited love

Didn't you notice anything?

1. JELENET

Anne: Hi, Jack...

(Jack telefonon beszél a főnökével és nem veszi észre Annet.)

Jack: ... Yes, that's exactly what I told him. I sent him an e-mail asking for more information... No, I didn't... I'm sorry, I didn't have enough time today... Okay, okay, I'll call him in ten minutes! Bye.

Anne: Hi, Jack! So... Did you have a good day?

Jack: No, I didn't. It was a horrible day, Anne. I had a lot of work to do... First I met some clients in the city. We met at nine o'clock and finished at two. After that I checked the monthly profit and loss accounts twice and then I wrote some letters... I'm so tired...

Anne: Well, now relax! Have a glass of wine... You're lucky... I'm cooking lasagna, your favourite dish...

Jack: No, thanks Anne. I ate lasagna at lunch.

Anne: Oh... But it's not a problem... I'll prepare something else... And after dinner we can watch Wimbledon on TV. There is a men's singles match. It should be exciting.

Jack: I'm sorry Anne, I... I can't... I have some work to finish. And then I'm going to my karate gym. That's how I relax!

Anne: Hey, Jack, just a moment! Didn't you notice anything?

Jack: Did you clean the kitchen?

Anne: No, I didn't...

Jack: Ah... Did you... Receive your "marvellous set of Chinese plates"?

Anne: No, Jack! Nothing about the house... It's about me...

Jack: Oh, I see! You bought a new pair of shoes, didn't you? They're very nice! Well... I have to go, now. It's late.

Anne: It doesn't matter! Go! Bye! Such a waste of time...

2. JELENET

Jack kiment. Anne a szalonban van. Megérkezik Sharon.

Sharon: Hey Anne... Thanks a lot for the tip on the bookshop... Oh my God! Anne! What's happening here? Make-up... Let me see... New hair-style, new dress... You look great!

Anne: At last somebody noticed my change!

Sharon: It's impossible not to notice it!

Anne: Thanks!... Well, what were you talking about?

Sharon: Oh, I wanted to thank you for the tip on the bookshop! It's a great shop.

Anne: Great. I'm glad you liked it. I love sitting and drinking a cup of coffee and looking at books.

Sharon: Yes, that's exactly what I did: I sat down, ordered a cup of coffee and read. And I found all the books I wanted!

Anne: What books did you buy?

Sharon: I bought a biography about Virginia Woolf and a book about archaeology. And you... What are you doing?

Anne: I'm trying not to think about all my problems... So, I'm looking at some pictures.

Sharon: Can I see them?

Anne: Sure! They're pictures of us! Oh, look... Look at this one! We were in Edinburgh! We went for a trip, do you remember?

Sharon: Yes, I do! How funny Alice was with that Scottish hat! Did we go by car?

Anne: Oh, no, we didn't. We went by train. And at the very last moment Peter didn't come because of the audition!

Sharon: Yes! As usual... And who is this? I don't know him!
Anne: Oh, that's Frank, a friend of mine. I met him on holiday in Norway. We had a good time together.

Sharon: ... And?

Anne: Afterwards he went his way and I went my way.

Sharon: Yeah, that's life! Did you have an affair with him?
Anne: No, no, I didn't... Nothing like that. We were only good friends!

Sharon: Do you keep in touch?

Anne: No, we don't. Well... He wrote me a letter five years ago. He sent me an invitation to his wedding.

Sharon: Did you go?

Anne: No, I didn't. Well... Unfortunately, I had a lot of work and I couldn't get away.

Sharon: Hey, but this is Jack! How smart he looks in this picture!

Anne: Yes, yes he does!

Sharon: Do you mind, Anne, if I keep this picture with me?

Anne: I... I do mind! No way, I'm sorry, Sharon! But no!

Sharon: Why not?! What do you care about it?

Anne: And you? What do you care about it?

(Jack váratlanul hazajön és látja, hogy a két lány vitatkozik...).

Jack: Hey girls, what's happening here?!

Anne: Nothing at all!

Sharon: Why?

That's life! An interesting survey

Music isn't the only thing in life!

1. JELENET

Jack: Peter, sorry, could you stop singing? I... I can't read...

Peter: Sorry Jack, what are you reading?

Jack: It's a book about inventions.

Peter: Really? Can I have a look?

Jack: Sure. I'm reading about the computer.

Peter: Oh, Jack! You have a serious problem... You work hard all day long and then you spend your spare time reading about computers...

Jack: The same applies to you... With music, I mean!

Peter: Are you crazy? How can you compare music with computers? Anyway, music is my job. You know... We're performing in a few days... I'm so nervous...

Jack: I know, I know... But music isn't the only thing in life! I'm studying for my European Computer Driver's License. Does that count?

Peter: Sure it does... But music is more interesting!

Jack: That's your opinion, Peter! For example did you know that Bill Gates founded Microsoft, but the computer goes back to the 19th century?

Peter: They built a computer in the 19th century?

Jack: No, John Babbage had the idea for the first computer in the 19th century. He called it the "analytical engine"...

(Belép Alice kezében újsággal.)

Alice: Hey guys! What are you talking about? I've got a questionnaire for you. Are you ready?

Peter: Not again! Why do you like answering all these surveys?

Alice: I guess it's a hobby... A little strange, I know. Anyway, it's a way to learn something new about ourselves... You know?... I'm curious, aren't you too? Well, are you ready?

Peter: No, no! Not me! Please, leave me alone, Alice. I have more important things to think about! Bye, bye! (Si alza e va via).

Alice: Jack?

Jack: Okay, okay! What are the questions? Shoot!

Alice: So, this questionnaire is about love... First question: when was the first time you kissed someone?

Jack: Oh... That's an interesting question... I kissed a girl for the first time two years ago.

Alice: Come on, you're joking!

Jack: Yeah, I guess I am. No... I kissed her in 1982.

Alice: How did you know it was 1982?

Jack: I remember it well. I met her during the summer holiday... I was riding my bicycle and when I saw her I fell off... She was so beautiful!

Alice: Did you kiss her immediately?

Jack: No, it took me a long time... She gave me a kiss for my birthday in January!

Alice: Interesting... Very interesting... Next question... (Csörög a telefon).

Jack: Saved by the bell! Just a moment, let me answer that.

2. JELENET

Jack: Hello? Yes... Just a moment. Alice, it's for you... Tom on the phone...

Alice: Oh... No, no! Jack, can you tell him I'm out, please?

Jack: No, Alice! I told him you were at home!

Alice: Oh, make something up, please! I don't want to talk to him... He's so boring! Tell him I'm ill or something else... Whatever you like!

Jack: Uh... Hello? Tom? Hello? Tom, I can't hear you! Hello?
(Úgy tesz, mintha nem hallana, és megszakítja a vonalat.)

Alice: Thanks, Jack! Okay, well, where were we? Let me see... Ah! When did you start school?

Jack: What does school have to do with love? And what a stupid question... I started school when I was six years old. Everybody starts school at six years of age...

Alice: Right! Did you enjoy school?

Jack: I enjoyed university, yes. I enjoyed it very much. Excuse me, Alice... But do you really find this questionnaire all that interesting?

Alice: Well, not really! Anyway, let's go on... And why did you enjoy university?

Jack: Because we had parties every Saturday night!

Alice: Ha, Ha! No, really, why?

Jack: Well... I learned a lot. And I made a lot of new friends. I lived on my own and... (Ismét csörög a telefon.)

Oh, just a moment!

Jack: Hello? Just a minute. Alice, it's John on the phone...

Alice: Oh, Jack! Please, tell him that...

Jack: I know... That you are not at home... Or that you are ill, I know the story...

Alice: Thanks Jack!

Jack: Hello? John... Hello? John, I can't hear you...

Alice: Right! Now... Where were we?

Jack: Wait a minute, Alice! Now it's my turn! I have a question for you...

Alice: Okay! Shoot!

Jack: Could you please answer the phone next time? You know, I'm not your secretary!...

That's life! I need a break!

I like it when you smile!

1. JELENET

Jack reggelizik. Sharon belép a konyhában kezében börrönddel.

Jack: Hi, Sharon? What's up?

Sharon: Hi, Jack. I'm okay! Don't worry! Everything is just fine!

Jack: Really? I don't think so... Come on, tell me what's happening... Some problems with Peter?

Sharon: No! Well... Yes! But I don't think you are the right person to talk with!

Jack: Maybe you're right. But I can't stand seeing you so sad! (Rámutat a börröndre.) And this? What does it mean?

Sharon: Don't worry! I'm not leaving for ever! My colleague Lucy invited me to spend the weekend at her house. She has a cottage in the countryside, near Brighton. We're leaving in the evening, right after work!

Jack: The countryside is lovely there!

Sharon: I hope so! I need a break! Living with Peter is getting hard! He is so nervous about his concert... He can only think and talk about that! He seems miles away! And as for his music... He's excessive! He goes on singing all day long! He doesn't speak with me anymore... He sings with me: "Sharon, can you pass me the salt, please?"

Jack: I like it when you smile! I think a weekend in the countryside is exactly what you need!

Sharon: I didn't know you liked the country so much...

Jack: Are you joking? I love the countryside. It's so quiet and relaxing.

Sharon: A lot of people think it's boring.

Jack: Well... They don't know what they are missing...

Sharon: What, Jack!? Are you using clichés now?

Jack: ... Like: the countryside is safe and the city is dangerous?

Sharon: ... Or: the country is clean and the city is dirty?

Jack: And don't forget the country is cheap, too!

Sharon: Yes, there's that, too. The city is very expensive, just think how much the rent is for this apartment!

Jack: Don't remind me! I have to pay mine tomorrow morning!

Sharon: Well, Jack! It was good talking with you! You make me laugh! Sometimes... I think about us... About how we were together once...

Jack: We were... We are... A wonderful couple! Don't forget it!

Sharon: Alright!

2. JELENET

Anne: Oh... Hi Jack. Do you have a moment?

Jack: I always have time for you, Anne!

Anne: Can I ask you a question?

Jack: Sure, how can I help you?

Anne: Well, I need your advice. I want to buy a new car.

Jack: Ah, you should buy a fast, expensive sports car!

Anne: Come on, I can't afford a sports car. My car's old, it's too big and it's difficult to drive.

Jack: Very good reasons to buy a new car.

Anne: Yes! I'd like to buy a small, stylish car that's not too expensive.

Jack: Hmm, a small, stylish car that's not too expensive...

Anne: ... And for young people!

Jack: Of course, you shouldn't buy a car for old people.

Anne: So, what car should I buy? I don't understand anything about cars!

Jack: Well, what about buying a Ferrari?

Anne: Are you joking?

Jack: Just kidding... Let me think... Oh... Can I have a look? How about this car?

Anne: It's nice! Isn't it expensive?

Jack: All cars are expensive these days.

Jack: By the way, did you hear about Sharon?

Anne: Yes! I met Peter in the afternoon. He told me they had a quarrel... But I don't think we should worry about it! Do you?

Jack: Hmm... Maybe we should... What do you think of Sharon, Anne?

Anne: She's very pretty...

Jack: Yes, she is...

Anne: What about me, Jack? Do you think I'm good-looking?

Jack: Come on Anne, you are very attractive!

Anne: Do you really think so?

Jack: Yes, Anne... You are always on my mind! (Véletlenül egy kis sört ráönt Anne ruhájára.) Oh! Anne, I'm sorry...

Anne: It doesn't matter, Jack...

Music: John Lennon

Lucy: Hello, hello and welcome to "Music World", and welcome to Tony Moore, our music expert! In this week's edition we want to celebrate the life of a great musician from Liverpool, maybe the greatest pop musician of all time... Right Tony?

Tony: Yes, that's right. And of course we're talking about John Lennon!

Lucy: Yes, John Lennon, a famous singer and songwriter, but also sometimes a controversial figure. Ok Tony, let's look at the important moments of his short but very successful career!

Tony: Well, John was born on October 9th 1940 in Liverpool. He had a difficult childhood, his parents separated and John lived with his aunt Mimi. She was very, very strict and she didn't like John spending all his time playing the guitar!

Lucy: So John had a difficult childhood. And what about The Beatles? When did this amazing pop group start playing together?

Tony: In 1958 John met Paul McCartney at art school in Liverpool. This was the beginning of their musical journey together. Shortly afterwards George Harrison joined them. At the beginning the band was called the "Quarrymen", but in 1959 they changed the name to The Beatles.

Lucy: Hmm, interesting! Where did the band play?

Tony: Well in Liverpool of course at the Cavern Club, but they gave their first series of performances in Hamburg at the Star Club in the city's red-light district. The Beatles were very happy and had lots of fun in Hamburg. It was here in Hamburg that they developed their look and in particular their famous hairstyle; a hairstyle that suddenly became fashionable all over the world.

Lucy: Ah... that hairstyle! They were called mop-tops, weren't they?

Tony: Yes, that's right.

Lucy: What was their first number one single?

Tony: The single "Please, please me"; it was an immediate success and went to the top of the charts!

Lucy: That's right!

Tony: Well... the 4 lads from Liverpool played together as The Beatles until 1970. Their last album was "Abbey Road". Then the band broke up.

Lucy: To the disappointment of all their fans! And then? What did John do next?

Tony: He started a successful solo career. "Imagine" and "Plastic Ono Band" were popular albums.

Lucy: Did John ever try to re-unite the Beatles?

Tony: Oh No! His relationship with Yoko Ono became very, very important for him. John and Yoko started to get involved in politics, they began to spread a message of world peace.

Lucy: And when was he killed?

Tony: John was killed on 8th December 1980 outside his New York apartment in the Dakota Building.

Lucy: Who killed him?

Tony: Mark David Chapman, a Beatles fan.

Lucy: And why?

Tony: Well he was crazy, he was mad, he said Lennon had betrayed the ideals of his generation!

Lucy: Yes, well, John was only 40 when he died, but he certainly isn't forgotten.

Tony: No, he certainly isn't forgotten. At today's there's a garden in Central Park called "Strawberry Fields" to remember John's life; it's near the Dakota Building.

Lucy: Ok, so... John Lennon... John Lennon, perhaps the greatest pop musician of all time. Thanks to our expert Tony Moore.

Tony: Thank you, goodbye.

Lucy: Goodbye... See you again next week for another edition of "Music World"! Goodbye!

Let's talk: Bill Gates

Eric: Good evening and welcome to this week's edition of "Let's talk". In the studio with me this evening are our commentators Marie and Tom. How are you?

Marie and Tom: Fine, thanks Eric.

Eric: Very good! Today let's talk... let's talk about one of the world most famous men in the world. I mean, Bill Gates: the world's top businessman and the richest man in the world. I have a question: how did he become so successful?

Marie: I can answer that question with one word: "Windows", the most widely used computer operating system in the world.

Eric: Yes, yes, that's true. It's almost every computer in the world uses "Windows". Let's go back in time a little! How did Bill Gates arrive at where he is today?

Tom: I'd say thanks to his business skills! At the end of the 80's when he founded Microsoft he understood where the computer industry was going.

Marie: That's right! At that time computers were very big, very expensive and only large companies could use them. Gates understood that smaller, personal computers, the PCs we use today, were the future. Of course, he wanted all these PCs to use his software.

Tom: So he understood 20 years ago how we use computers today... that's a good businessman.

Eric: But of course you need more than intuition to become the world's top businessman...

Marie: Yes of course, to become the world's number one businessman you need an aggressive business philosophy. For example, from the beginning Bill Gates did everything to stop the illegal copying of Microsoft programmes. Until this time people didn't buy software programmes, they shared them freely or copied them; Bill Gates created the market for computer software.

Tom: But that's not all! Bill Gates was very ambitious too! Do you know he wanted to be millionaire by the age of 30?

Marie: Yes, and he worked very, very hard! For many years he only slept six hours a day, he was a real workaholic...

Eric: Ah, ah... so he also helped coffee producers too!

Tom: Ah, ah, I guess so.

Eric: After he became a multi-millionaire with "Windows" what did he do next?

Marie: He turned his attention to the Internet. Initially he didn't think the Internet was important; this was a business mistake. Microsoft developed "Internet Explorer 4" and three years later Microsoft won the browser war and destroyed its competitors.

Tom: So today almost every computer in the world uses a Microsoft programme.

Eric: That's right! Well, Bill Gates is a very, very successful businessman. Is there anything about him to make him likeable or just a bit human?

Tom: Well, his charity work, this is very important for him...

Marie: Bill and his wife Melinda now work for "The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation"; in 2000 Bill gave half his fortune to the foundation to fund charity work.

Eric: This is fantastic. Bill Gates, a successful man, with very good business skills, but with a big heart too! Well, today we have learnt about one of the most important business leaders of our age. Thanks very much Marie, and thank you Tom! Goodbye.

Tom e Marie: Goodbye.
