Please, leave me alone!

1. JELENET

Peter: How does this scarf suit me, Anne?

Anne: Oh... Very well. You look fine!

Peter: Really? I'm not sure... Look... (egy másik nyakkendőt vesz kézbe.) Maybe this one looks better...

Anne: Don't panic, Peter! Everything is going to be all right tonight!

Peter: I don't know... Actually I've a sore throat... I'm losing my voice... I'll sing badly tonight, I'm sure!

Anne: Come on, Peter! You will sing very well! You are a professional singer! Don't forget it! Well, I'm going to have some tea. Would you like some?

Peter: Thank you, Anne! I would really like a cup of tea. If it's not too much trouble...

Anne: No, not at all, I'll just add some water to the pot. A cup of tea and my chocolate cake will keep your mind off the musical... For five minutes at least!

Peter: Shall I give you a hand?

Anne: Uh... Yes, thanks... Here is the cake. (átnyújtja neki a tányért a tortával, de Péter, aki teljesen elmerül a gondolataiban, leejt egy szeletet.)

Peter: Oops...

Anne: Oh Peter! Okay listen... I know you are nervous, but try to be careful, please!

Peter: I'm sorry, Anne... Listen, how do you think the musical will go?

Anne: I think it will go very well! "Grease" is considered a classic musical. It's successful, entertaining... There will be loads of people clapping.

Peter: Do you really think so?

Anne: Sure I do! Hey, Peter, what time does the show start?

Peter: At nine o'clock. How are we going to get to the theatre?

Anne: I'm going to drive.

Peter: I don't think that's a very good idea.

Anne: Why not?

Peter: Because parking there is almost impossible.

Anne: Okay, we'll take the Tube.

Peter: That's a much better idea. When shall we leave?

Anne: Around eight thirty?

Peter: No, that's too late!

Anne: Okay! We'll leave earlier!

Peter (szórakozottságában leejti a teáscsészét az asztalra)
Oh... I'm so sorry, Anne!

Anne: Peter, you're hopeless! Okay, okay, listen... I think you need to relax a bit! Why don't you go and take a nap?

Peter: I can't sleep... I'm too nervous!

Anne: Okay! Why don't you rehearse your part again?

Peter: I can't... I can't remember anything!

Anne: Okay. Okay. Go wherever you want... Just, please, leave me alone! Please...

Sharon: The musical was great, wasn't it?

Anne: Yes, it was! Peter was excellent! Well, now let's think about the party! It's time for fun! Uh, by the way, who is coming to the party tomorrow?

Sharon: Well... David will be here. Mary, Paul and Tom will be here as well... Everyone will be here!

Anne: I wonder if Jack will be here...

Sharon: Jack? Why?

Anne: He's leaving on a business trip tomorrow morning. He doesn't know exactly when he'll be back...

(Belép Jack.)

Jack: Hey, girls! What are you talking about?

Sharon: Anne was telling me that you won't be coming to the party this evening. It isn't true, is it?

Jack: Yes, it is. I'm afraid I can't.

Sharon: Business before pleasure... You never will change, will you?

(Csörög a telefon. Anne felveszi. Jack és Sharon egyedül maradnak.)

Anne: Excuse me... Hello? Oh, hi...

Anne: Okay... But don't tell anyone! Yes... He's quite handsome... Do you think he likes me, Sharon?

Sharon: What a question! It's none of my business!

Sharon: I'm sorry, Anne... I didn't mean to hurt your feelings, I'm just a bit nervous these days...

Anne: Why?

Sharon: Because of Peter... We're having some problems... I'm sorry Anne, but I don't wanna talk about that... I've got to go... See you later. Bye bye!

(Anne egyedül marad. Észrevette, hogy Jack otthagya a zakóját a diványon.)

Anne: Oh, Jack! You're always so messy... You leave your things everywhere... (észreveszi, hogy van valami a zsebében.) But... What's this, in the pocket? (Kivesz a zsebből egy fényképet és megnézi.) What? It's Jack and Sharon!? And he's kissing her? Oh my God! Now I understand everything...

Sport: All about Rugby

Eric: Good afternoon, welcome to this week's edition of "Sports Special". And welcome to John Forbes, our sports expert.

John: Hello Eric and good afternoon to all our sports fans.

Eric: Well John, which sport are you going to talk about today?

John: Today I'd like to talk about rugby.

Eric: Fantastic! I'm a real rugby fan! I think it's a really exciting sport! John, a question: where did rugby start?

John: Well, you know Rugby is a town in England, near Birmingham.

Eric: Yes...

John: There's a famous school there called "Rugby School", it's one of the oldest schools in England. It opened in 1567. Anyway, boys at this school started the game.

Eric: Really... And where's rugby played today?

John: It's played all round the world but there are 8 main countries; these are Ireland, Wales, England, Scotland, France, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. And it's becoming more popular today in Italy and Argentina.

Eric: Who plays rugby?

John: Mainly men, but there are more and more women's teams.

Eric: Really, women? That's a surprise!

John: That's right! There are more than 400 women's teams in England today!

Eric: I see. John, can you explain to our viewers how to play rugby?

John: Of course. Remember, rugby's very different from soccer, the ball's oval, like an egg. There are 15 players in a team and the players can carry the ball. In fact the aim is to run fast with the ball in your hands.

Eric: And what about a "tackle"? What's that?

John: To stop a player of the opponent's team running with the ball you tackle him, you catch his legs and pull him to the ground.

Eric: That sounds dangerous!

John: Yes, it can be. There are lots of injuries in rugby. It's a very physical game.

Eric: And how do you score?

John: Well, you run with the ball and put it down on the ground at the opponents' end of the pitch. Of course your opponents do everything they can to stop you from reaching their end of the pitch! You score a try if you cross the try line and put the ball down on the ground, you can also score points by kicking the ball between the 2 goalposts, the goalposts are very high, if you do this, you score a goal.

Eric: So, there are tries and there are goals?

John: That's right.

Eric: Just one more question, what are "scrums"?

John: Scrums are special to rugby, players from the two sides push against each other to try to get the ball.

Eric: Scrums sound dangerous too!

John: Yes, they can be dangerous, but it's fun, you know I used to play rugby.

Eric: Really?

John: Yes but I injured my shoulder and had to stop. I just watch now! Well, I sometimes watch a game on Saturday afternoons, how about coming along?

Eric: Sure!

John: How about next weekend?

Eric: Great! Ok, thank you John! Goodbye and goodbye to all our sports fans. See you next week for another edition of "Sports Special"!

Travel: Air travel without the stress

Lucy: Good afternoon and welcome to this week's edition of "The Travel Programme". And of course welcome to Christine Oteng, our travel expert!

Christine: Hello Lucy!

Lucy: Well Christine, do you know that one of the main causes of stress in the west is air travel? According to research from the University of Illinois in the USA.

Christine: You know that doesn't surprise me! Air travel can be a very stressful experience. It seems that a lot of people start to feel nervous in the travel agency when they're buying the ticket or when they're buying the ticket online at home.

Lucy: Really? Well why don't we give our viewers some advice on how to reduce that stress and enjoy air travel more?

Christine: Sure! Just follow a few simple rules and you'll fly without any stress at all. The first rule: don't arrive at the airport late!

Lucy: Oops... I always arrive late.

Christine: That's not a good idea! For a start if you arrive at the airport early, you have plenty of time to check-in, you can go straight through passport control and the security check, then you have plenty of time to relax! You can do some shopping, have a drink, read a magazine or a book. All stress free without worrying about missing the flight.

Lucy: You're right, Christine! It's important to arrive at the airport with plenty of time to spare! And what else can I do to make air travel less stressful?

Christine: Well, another cause of stress is the amount of luggage that we take with us, we always take too much! Listen, don't take more than 20 kg and only take one suitcase! Check the weight before you leave home, and relax at the check-in; there's no need now to worry about excess baggage charges.

Lucy: It's always relaxing to save money.

Christine: Definitely! And one last thing on the topic of luggage.

Lucy: Yes...

Christine: Hand luggage: take one small bag and don't put too much in it! Remember you'll have to carry this around the airport!

Lucy: Good advice. You know many people have a fear of flying, these people become nervous when the plane takes off and lands.

Christine: Of course, I understand that people may feel nervous at these moments. They should remember that flying is the safest way to travel. So, relax and enjoy the flight!

Lucy: And you shouldn't look out of the windows too much.

Christine: Why not? Clouds are relaxing! But if you do feel nervous, you could try taking a tranquilliser. If you have a real fear of flying, they can help you relax!

Lucy: Don't take too many though!

Christine: Of course not! And try closing your eyes as the plane takes-off and lands; think of the beautiful place you're going to or the wonderful holiday you've just had.

Lucy: Well! How to enjoy stress free air travel. Don't arrive at the airport late! Don't take too much luggage! After passport control and the security check relax with a drink and something interesting to read! Or perhaps do some shopping! And, once you're on the plane remember that flying is the safest way to travel. So, thanks Christine for this very useful advice and goodbye!
